UNIVERSITY PRESENTATION	The University of Ferrara is one of the oldest universities in the world. The foundation of the 'Studio di Ferrara' was granted by Pope Boniface IX in 1391. Law, arts and theology courses were offered in the Studio. With 68 Bachelor's and Master's degree courses and more than 25,000 students, the University of Ferrara now has thirteen Departments and the Faculty of Medicine, Pharmacy and Prevention, located in prestigious buildings and modern premises immersed in the urban environment, forming a true university campus characterised by its distinctive identity.
